

MEDIA RELEASE

26th August, 2010

Onlinecarpet.com.au has expanded into Sydney, catering to a sharp increase in demand for its discounted carpets

Onlinecarpet.com.au, Australia's first online carpet store offers customers a superior range of carpets from major manufacturers at super low prices. Demand for carpets from the website has grown as customers seek a simple and low cost method of purchasing carpet for their home or office.

With the huge success of Onlinecarpet in the Melbourne market, Onlinecarpet is now excited to offer the complete supply and installation service to Sydney customers. Home renovators, landlords, builders and developers can now go online, search the large range of carpets and purchase at discounted rates.

Onlinecarpet.com.au, Director, Justin Mace said that the website is an exciting opportunity to provide customers with lower prices on the same quality carpet they can find at well-known carpet stores. Our goal is to provide a website that makes the process of selecting the right carpet straightforward for customers with all levels of carpet knowledge.

The simple search process allows customers to search by brand, price, style, fibre or use, making it easier than ever before to find a carpet to suit your needs. With transparent pricing, Onlinecarpet encourages customers to check the prices offered by competitors and come online to compare and save, guaranteed!
